The petition of Thomas Stewardson on behalf of himself and the other trustees for the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, bearing date Philadelphia, 5th Month 17th 1799; stated as follows, viz. That a certain John Collins had in consequence of fraudulent deeds poll, obtained patents for two certain tracts of land, one situate in the county of Northumberland, surveyed to Samuel Caldwell in pursuance of a warrant dated in 1774; and the other situate now in Luzerne county, surveyed to said Caldwell by a warrant also dated in 1774—and requested that patents might be granted, for the said tracts, to William Crammond, Edward Tilghman, John Ashley, and Thomas Stewardson, trustees of the estate of Samuel Caldwell, surviving partner of James Meese, as the said two tracts were part of the estate of Meese and Caldwell.

Whereupon the Board having considered the same, ordered that at least sixty days notice be given in one of the Philadelphia newspapers, and in the Lancaster Journal to the said Collins or his assigns, to appear before the Board on the first Monday in October next, to shew cause if any he or they have, why patents should not issue for the said two tracts to the said trustees agreeably to the prayer of the said petition.

PHILADELPHIA,

SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 24.

HEALTH-OFFICE,

THE Board of Health, desirous of giving to their fellow citizens, all the information they are possessed of, relative to the prevailing disease in our city, think it their duty to state, that after the most deligent enquiry, they have been able to make on the subject, they find that during the last 6 days there have been a number of persons taken ill, principally in the lower part of the City and Southwark, many of whom have died after a few days sickness, and that at present there are still a considerable number sick; though they are happy to state, from accurate information, a great part of them are apparently on the recovery, and hopes are entertained, from the late change in the weather, which still continues cool, that a check may be given to the progress of the disease:—they are therefore of opinion (from the mortality, as appears by the list of interments) that at present there is not sufficient ground for the great alarm which pervades the city; but should it so happen that the disease progresses further, they will, without hesitation, state whatever comes to their knowledge, for the information of their fellow citizens, so as to enable them to judge on the propriety of removing.

By order of the Board,

EDWARD GARRIGUES, Pres.

P. HOLLINGSWORTH, Sec'y.

Resolved, In consequence of the alarm occasioned by the sickness in the southern part of the City, that no person or family remove from a sickly into a more healthy part of the City, declaring, that in every such instance, the Board will exercise the authority vested in them by law, to prevent the injury which may arise from so improper and inconsiderate a conduct.

Extract of a letter from a Gentleman in York to his friend in Lancaster, dated Aug. 13.

As for news we have none, the Democrats are decreasing daily, their party have sent a number of letters to their Republican friends throughout the County, and they expressly mention therein, "If the Aristocrats gain a majority they will call out victory." They have established a Directory. Last Saturday they had a meeting in York Township, at Geo. Spanglers; they collected all their friends even as far as M'Alister's town to make the meeting large; it is supposed not more than 20 inhabitants of the township met.

Lat Saturday at Cline's tavern a meeting was held; Baltzer Fitz, Chairman, upwards of 40 met, unanimous for ROSS; at Masters, upwards of 40 met, unanimous for ROSS; at the Broge tavern upwards of 100 met, unanimous for ROSS; the Borough met, 160 unanimous for ROSS; their was also a meeting held Saturday 8 days 109 unanimous for ROSS, except (M'Intire) this last meeting was at George Spanglers.

To Messrs. Wm. and Robert Dickson.

GENTLEMEN,

You asserted on Wednesday last that Mr. M'Kean would have a Majority of 4000 votes at the ensuing election, and that 2000 dollars had been offered as a bet on it, and refused. I am indeed very sorry I did not know it sooner, or I should have condescended to oblige the Gentleman who offered it I hope however, I am not yet too late, and therefore, now take the liberty of offering you, for your own bride and emolument the sum of two hundred dollars, provided you will insure the bet to be made. If you concede to the proposition my name is left with the printer. If you do not, I must conclude that the person who offered, has been cunning enough to decline, or that you are liars.

STUMP.

NORFOLK, August 15.

To the proprietors of stages, and others who keep road horses.

Travelling lately to Richmond, in the stage, I observed one of the horses to limp, and upon examination found the joints above the fore hoofs excoriated, about the size of a dollar, by the striking of his shoes in trotting. This is a defect to which horses are very subject, but the remedy is I believe, known to few, for otherwise it will be difficult to account for the matter of fact, that so many of that valuable class of animals, in every part of the country, are at this day suffering under this torture. I presume it will only be necessary to mention the remedy, to induce every horse master to give it a fair trial. Some time ago having occasion to drive a horse a few days journey in a single chair, I found he cut himself so much that I was obliged to take off his shoes. Shortly after, I fell in with a smith who undertook to shoe him in such a manner as to prevent it, and the method he took was, to make that half of the shoe which lies under the inside of the hoof considerably thicker than the other half; the effect of which is, that the inside half of the shoes being the heaviest, the horse will throw his legs wider apart in trotting. This experiment fully answered the intent, for in driving the distance of two hundred miles afterwards, my horse did not, to my knowledge, strike himself once. I had often before heard of this method of shoeing, but had not paid much attention to it, for in fact, I much doubted its efficacy. It is to be observed, the experiment I made was with the hind feet, but have no doubt it would prove equally effectual with the fore feet, which latter are more frequently cut in trotting than the former. I cannot conclude without requesting all such printers as may think humanity to the brute creation, or the public benefit, a matter worthy of attention, to give this a place in their papers.

Late Foreign Articles

NEW-YORK, Aug. 23.

☞ The ship Andromache, capt. Price arrived last evening in 59 days from Glasgow. By her we have received a file of Glasgow papers to the Twenty-second of June inclusive, and London papers to the 19th.—The following comprize nearly the whole of whatever interesting intelligence they contain.

LONDON, June 17.

The next advices from the East-Indies will bring decisive intelligence respecting the sentiments and conduct of Tippo. It was demanded of him that he should follow the example of the Nizam, and dismiss the French officers in his service. His reply was evasive and unsatisfactory: a positive answer was desired in twenty days. When the last express left India, that answer had not been received; but very active measures were taking by Lord Mornington to act with vigour and promptitude, in case that reply should be unsatisfactory. The first offensive operation will be to seize the port of Mangalore on the Malabar coast, and thus cut off the principal means by which the French could correspond with Tippo by sea.

The most active preparations are making for the intended expedition, supposed to be destined for the Low Countries. Gen. Sir Ralph Abercrombie has been recalled from Scotland, for the purpose, it is asserted, of being appointed to this command, and gen. Stewart, it is expected, will likewise be employed. Sixteen ships, chiefly of 50 and 44 guns, are preparing to carry troops, and a considerable number of the guards are to be sent. Before this expedition takes effect, it is supposed the French will be attacked in great force by the Russians and Austrians on the Lower Rhine.

June 19.

Sun Office, 3 o'clock.—We stop the press to state, that an account has reached town from Holland, within these two hours, that the King of Prussia had entered Guelderland, at the head of an army. and that the patriots were flying in every direction before him.

We are still without any further advices from Lord St. Vincent.

Rear Admiral Whitshed,	5——
Rear Admiral Lord Nelson,	15——
Admiral Sir Alan ardner	16——

Besides frigates and smaller vessels, and a number of Russian, Turkish and Portuguese ships of war, the whole of which are no doubt by this time united, Lord St. Vincent having sent orders to Malta, Palermo, and Alexandria for that purpose.

Lord Duncan, in the Kent, will sail on Wednesday next from Yarmouth, to resume the command of the fleet off the Texel.

Marshal Suwarrow has apprized gen. Moreau, that if he should dare to put any French emigrants in the Russian service to death, who may chance by the fortune of war to fall into his hands, he will instantly order one hundred republican prisoners to be shot for every man Moreau kills.

The Constitution cutter arrived at Plymouth on Saturday: she looked into Brest on the 12th inst. and saw two line of battle ships in the Outer Road and three frigates. The latter got under sail, wind N. E. and by E. and ran out at half past two about 4 miles to Matthias Point, and hove to. As the Anson and Unicorn were in sight, they lay there till night, when they hauled their wind for Brest. The Unicorn and Constitution took a brig with Brandy and Wine, one of 16 sail from Bourdeaux to Brest, and drove the greater part on shore. The Constitution sustained the fire of two gun brigs for a considerable time, and received shots in her hull from the shore.

The hon. Mr. North, governor of Ceylon and its dependencies, represents the spice to be so productive, that, including what is already in store, and the produce of the year 1799, more spice will remain in hand than is sufficient to supply all Europe for five years.

A national military college is about to be established, under the patronage of the Duke of York, at High Wycombe, in Buckinghamshire. Thirty young gentlemen are to be admitted in the first instance. The Prussian general Jarry is to superintend the institution.

Linens, which used to be sold at 1s. 7d. per yard, were sold at the markets of Belfast on the 7th inst. at 3s. 1d.

GLASGOW, June 22.

This day's mail has not brought us any thing worth recording, if we except a report, which the Sun stops the press to announce, of the King of Prussia having entered Guelderland with his army. Our readers will observe, in an article copied from the last Paris papers, in the first page, that his Majesty of Prussia, on the 5th instant, reviewed his troops at Wesel, on the confines of Guelderland; circumstance which, combined with the astonishing successes of the Allies, may induce them to believe, that his Majesty has at length been prevailed upon to join the Coalition for the deliverance of Europe.

There are now two Hamburgh mails due

PARIS, June 12.

The Batavian Republic has begun to adopt efficacious measures for its defence against all attacks. Fortifications are erecting at Zurphen and Duesbourg. The Yssel will be fortified between those two points.

The communication with Piedmont is cut off, particularly with Turin; but, from report, we have reason to believe, that city, after having admitted the Austrians, into its bosom, has received the reward of its fidelity, having been partly burned by the fire of the batteries from the citadel in which the French hope to hold out for a long time.

June 16.

Buonaparte after being beat by the Pachas of Jerusalem and Damascus, returned suddenly to the wall of St. Jean D'Acre, gave the Pacha a signal defeat and took possession of the city.

STUTGARD, June 3.

It is said that gen. Vucassowich has intercepted in Piedmont a courier of Gen. Moreau to Gen. Massena; and that Gen. Moreau in his dispatches had complained of not receiving reinforcements from France and made rather an unfavourable statement of his position. In his rear, in the province of Mondovi, there was an insurrection of 10,000 peasants, who had carried off his small stores and convoys, whilst the enemy's army in front formed a demi-circle round him towards Verne, Cassel, Tortona and Novi. In this critical situation he had no other alternative than that of marching against the peasants of Mondovi, in order to secure his rear before the enemy joined the insurgents, and cut off his retreat to Coni. One thing not less extraordinary is, that the army of Naples, the first column of which had proceeded towards Rome since the 3d Floreal (April 23) had not effected its junction with Gen. Moreau on the 27th. It appears that its progress has been retarded by two causes, the one that Gen. Scherer had directed it to proceed by Romagna, Bologne, and Ferrara, by which it could only enter Tuscany, by going considerably out of the way; and the other that the columns of this army have been much harrassed on their road, not only by the insurgents, but by the Anglo Neapolitans, who made a descent upon his rear, in order to oblige him to turn and give battle.

LONDON. June 15.

Lord Bridport, in the Royal Sovereign, with one 74 gun ship and three frigates, arrived off Plymouth on Thursday afternoon, and it was supposed that the rest of his fleet were on the coast, having left the Irish station, where their services are no longer necessary.

We this morning received Paris papers to the 9th instant, which contain more important Intelligence than any that have reached this country for a long time past. By the proceedings of the Council of Five Hundred of the 6th inst. it will be seen that a violent Rupture has actually taken place between the Legislative body and the Executive Directory. The address of the former to the Directory, is full of complaints and reproaches, and undisguisedly states that a fermentation very generally exists, and that they are surrounded by dangers.

The Council of Five Hundred, besides their address to the Directory, which so fully unveils the desperate condition of their country, have published a Proclamation to the French people, which we regret that we cannot, from the late hour at which these Journals arrived, give at length. In this they censure the conduct of the Agents of the Directory, and call on the people to support themselves in the difficult situation in which they stand—The Address is couched in very strong language.

June 18.

We this day present our readers with some further interesting intelligence which the last French papers contain.

The Paris papers acknowledge, what we have already learned by Col. Crawfurd, that General Bellegarde had driven General Lacourbe from St. Gothard. The latter was behind the valley of Durserem, and was endeavoring to cover the approaches to Altorf. This intelligence shews us, that including the Grisons country, more than half of Switzerland is already delivered from the Usurpers, who in vain shed their blood to maintain their cruel dominion in that country.

This morning arrived a mail from Dublin, which brought letters and papers of the 13th inst. They contradict the report of a speedy dissolution of the Parliament of that Kingdom.

June 19.

No further information has been received, either from Earl St. Vincent, or respecting the Toulon Fleet. It is now generally understood that no advices have been received from his Lordship since he was off Carthagena. The statements therefore, of his having blockaded up the Brest Fleet in Toulon, are founded rather upon what might be expected, than upon inteligence that had been received.

Unofficial and unconfirmed as was the assertion in the Paris Papers of the 11th. of the disembarking of 16,000 men at Leghorn, well informed men begin to attach some Belief to it.—The policy of reinforcing General Macdonald, in order to enable him to effect his retreat, is obvious.

Great exertions are making at Brest to fit out the remaining ships of war in that harbour: when they are ready, which it appears by the last Paris Papers they were expected to be in a few days. The Farrol squadran, it is supposed, will make an attempt to sail.

Sieyes, in his speech on his Installation, carefully avoids any mention of the sentiments and principles of the Prussian Cabinet. In his reply to Sieyes, Merlin of Douai merely says, that the new Director is come from a friendly Power; words too general to enable us to form any opinion of the politics by which Prussia is actuated, or the part she means to take.

"The Helvetic Directory have arrived here since the 1st of this month, and in a few days all the Constituted Authorities will be assembled.

"Although the French Army fight like heroes, and the Swiss are equal to them, yet the Enemies Army is so superior in number that the brave General Massena is forced to concentrate his force, and act upon the defensive. He, however, disputes every foot of ground with the Austrians, and at this moment Zurich is in our possession.

"It is pretended here that the French Government has given orders to evacuate Switzerland, nothing can be more false; Massena has declared, that so far from abandoning Switzerland, he will defend it to the last drop of his blood."

The Turco Russian Squadron has begun to bombard Ancona, and has already set fire to part of the buildings of that City.

PARIS, June 8.

COUNCIL OF FIVE HUNDRED.

Sitting of June 6.

After the General Committee of yesterday, the Council formed in a public Sitting, adopted on the proposition of Baulay, the following order.

"The Council of Five Hundred, on the report of several United Committees, orders that a Message shall be sent to the Executive Directory to the following effect:

"Citizen Directors, the French Government is instituted for securing the preservation and well being of the People.

"The Legislature Body and the Executive Directory from the two principal parts of this Government. These two authorities should understand one another, and ought to proceed in concert to attain the common object of their institution. Their means of correspondence are regulated by the Constitution, as well as the respective duties of the two authorities.

"That the Legislature Body makes Laws and the Directory execute them: thus the Directory is specially commissioned to provide according to these Laws, for the interior and exterior safety of the Republic.

"As to the external safety, the Directory is specially placed by the Constitution as a sort of advanced Guard, as the first Centinel to observe the designs and the movements of other people, and when they perceive that they endanger the existence, or the just rights of the Nation, they may alone act provisionally for its security; but they ought in this case to advise the Legislative Body without delay, who will thereupon adopt the measures which it may think most agreeable for the preservation and dignity of the people whom they represent.

"Citizen Directors, every thing announces that the safety of the Nation from without is threatened, and that the interior tranquility may be involved in it.

"From without we have to sustain a violent war; six months ago we were every where victorious; it appears now that the Enemy has obtained some advantages over us.

"The public voice announces that some powers who have hitherto taken no part, at least apparantly, in the war, are against us in arms, and in a state of hostility, not only imminent but real.

"In these circumstances the council of Five Hundred had reason to expect that the communications required by the Constitution would be made to them.

"Citizen Directors, you are no doubt sensible that it does not consist with the dignity of the French people to assume a humiliating appearance towards other nations. They must therefore resume the attitude which nature, strength, courage and industry destine for it.

"It is publickly notorious, that in several parts of the interior of the Republic, uneasiness, and even fermentation exists; and the causes are equally notorious. But before we adopt any measures on this head, the Council think it their duty to require from you information as far as you know, what are the causes, and what the means which you think most proper to put an end to the troubles that may arise from such cause.

"In this situation of affairs, a longer silence on your part would give uneasiness to the people and the Legislative body.

"We invite you, therefore, to give us, without delay, information as to this double object of our anxiety."

FLORENCE, May 28.

Gen. Macdonald has been here since the 5th inst. We consider him as the Saviour of the French in Italy and our confidence in him will not be disappointed. The army which has advanced by forced marches assembled here yesterday; it is filled with ardour, and its zeal, which a few reverses has only animated, is a happy presage in our favour. To-morrow is the day we march to free the Appenines, and take possession of the plain. There will only remain a division under the orders of General Rusca. Reckoning that of General Victor, who occupies Genoa, we have an army of 40,000 men. We may therefore, entertain great hopes, and the more so, as we shall be protected towards the sea by the Toulon squadron.

We expect this evening Citizen Seybes, Consul of the French Republic at Naples.

PARIS, June 13.

Buonaparte obliged to yield to a resistance which he could not foresee, returned to the walls of St. Jean d'Acre at the moment in which the Pachas of Jerusalem and Damascus were congratulating themselves on some slight advantages. He cut them in pieces, as well as the English troops and entered the city as conqueror.

The Batavian Republic has begun to adopt efficacious measures for its defence against all attacks. Fortifications are erecting at Zutphen and Duesbourg. The Yssel will be fortified between those two points.

From Brest we learn, that the sitting out of 15 sail of the line, and some frigates and corvettes, is carried on with great activity. Three of the line, one frigate, and two corvettes, are already in the harbour.

A French officer thus writes from Genoa, the 19th of May: "We are just arrived at the decisive moment: if our two armies are able to beat the enemy, and form a junction, we shall immediately resume the offensive; but to effect that, we must first make a terrible effort to carry our point."

HAVANNA, August 8, 1799.

SIR,

In consequence of a Royal Decree just received from Madrid, the Governor has this day given orders, that no neutral vessel be permitted to enter this port, and all those that have arrived since the 3d instant are not as yet allowed to unload.

I lose not a moment in giving you this intelligence for the information of the merchants of Philadelphia. If any change takes place, I will take care to acquaint you therewith immediately.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,

From Mr. Cobbett's Paper.

M'Kean & Co.

Amongst the ridiculous parts of the Address, which Leib, Coxe, Miles, Dallas, &c. &c. have published in behalf of M'Kean, is, the conclusion, in which they call upon their "FRIENDS AND FELLOW CITIZENS" to leave nothing undone to get him elected because republicanism is in great danger in Europe—"Whether" say they, "we consider the intelligence from abroad concerning the operations of all the mightiest of the despotic powers, &c. we are most solemnly affected with the prospect that presents itself. A combination of Emperors and Kings is formed on a basis avowedly hostile to the theoretical, as well as to the practical sovereignty of the people throughout the world."

Well? and what then?—Do you imagine that your electing M'Kean will break up the combination? What is this poor old soul to do against "all the mightiest of the despotic powers?" Will his receiving two thousand pounds a year out of the pockets of the people of Pennsylvania, prevent Marshal Suwarrow from marching to Paris? I'll engage that neither of the Emperors or Kings of Europe know there is such a being in existence, except King George, perhaps, who may have read of him in the "DEMOCRATIC JUDGE."——The other four committee men are stupid creatures, but was it not a shame, now, for you, Dallas and Coxe, to attempt to persuade the poor citizens, that, by their choosing this old man to govern them, they would prevent the Emperors and Kings from rooting out the comfortable doctrine of the "Sovereignty of the people?"—Was it not a shame? I say.—How you must have laughed to yourselves when you saw Leib, Muhlenburg and the other two swallowing the bait, and pompously putting their hands to such a miserable bore!

Dallas.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was once a play-actor in the British Island of Jamaica, where he got hissed off the stage in the character of ARCHER, in a comedy called the Beaux's Stratagem. Considering Mr. Dallas's fine person (I except his phisiognomy,) I have always thought that his failure on the boards must have been owing to some fault in those who acted in the other characters; and, therefore, I would humbly recommend to him, the next time he plays Archer, to get his friend Leib to act the part of SCRUB, a character to which, I am persuaded the Doctor would do ample justice. In default of Leib he might take Muhlenburg or Miles, or, in fact, any one of the six except, Coxe, who is too thin. But Leib, however, is his man; he is pretty well in his own clothes, but in the habiliment of Brother Scrub, would exhibit a vulgarity that would set the whole house in a roar.

ELECTION.

The friends to the Election of JAMES ROSS, as Governor, resident in the Townships of Blockley and Kingsessing, are requested to meet at George Weed's lower Bridge on Schuylkill, on Saturday, 31st August, at 3 o'clock, to take into consideration the most proper steps in support of his Election.

Blockley, August 23, 1799.

THE subscribers, members of the Grand Inquest of the county of Chester, having attentively and deliberately considered the relative merits of the two persons now in nomination for Governor, to succeed the present, do not hesitate in pledging themselves to support JAMES ROSS, of Pittsburgh, at the ensuing election for office, inasmuch as he has always, with that consistency which exclusively appertains to the friends of America, advocated her rights in spite of all the menaces and calumnies of foreign emissaries or domestic traitors; that his mind has been superior to the popular clamours of the moment steadily pursuing the interests of the people without being of this party to-day, and the other to-morrow, as popular prejudice might seem to vibrate; and as there will be a vacancy in the Senate of Pennsylvania, at the ensuing election, for a Senator, from the district composed of the counties of Chester, Montgomery and Bucks, we do recommend, as our choice, and are determined to support ZEBULON POTTS, Esq. for said office.

August Term, 1799.

At a meeting of a number of respectable inhabitants of the county of Chester, convened at James Jackson's, in the town of West-Chester, on Wednesday the 21st of August, 1799, in order to take into consideration, some matters respecting the ensuing election.

RICHARD DOWNING, Jun. In the Chair.

JOSEPH M'CLELLAN, Secretary.

ON motion of Mr. Whelen, it was unanimously agreed, that a committee be appointed, to enquire into the slander, alledged against JAMES ROSS, Esq. of Pittsburg, with power to enquire into the merits of said slander, and to publish the result thereof.

On motion, it was unanimously agreed that a committee, consisting of twenty-six persons, be appointed for the purpose of investigating the validity of the charges alledged against Mr. Ross,—in pursuance of which the following persons were appointed, viz.

William Gibbons, Esq.	John Frick,
Joseph M'Clellan,	David Morris.
Isaac Wayne, Esq.	David Pennypacker.
Jos. Hemphill, Esq.	Evan Evans.
Benj. Jacobs, Esq.	Dr. Joseph Pierce.
Dr. F. Gardner.	Philip Scott, Esq.
Dr. A. Bailey,	John Hughes.
Dennis Whelen,	Joseph Sharp.
Walter Finney, Esq.	David Jones, Esq.
Robert May,	John Rinehart.
Samuel Haines,	Robert Miller.
Jesse Jones,	John Bowen.

On motion of Mr. Finney, it was unanimously agreed, that William Gibbons, Joseph M'Clellan, Isaac Wayne, Joseph Hemphill, and Dennis Whelen, be a committee to arrange and forward to the Press, such information, relative to the charges against Mr. Ross, as they may receive from time to time.

On motion of Mr. Whelen, it was unanimously agreed, that a Federal Meeting of the Inhabitants of Chester County, be held at the Court house, in West-Chester, on Friday, the 6th of September, in order to form a General Ticket, for the ensuing Election.

It was moved, seconded and unanimously agreed to, that the proceedings of this meeting, be published in Hand-bills, and also in several News Papers of the city of Philadelphia.

At a respectable meeting of a number of the Citizens in the southern part of the County of Philadelphia, agreeable to public notice at the house of Cadwallader Evans in Southwark, for the purpose of promoting the election of JAMES ROSS, esq. of Pittsburg, Joseph Bird, Esq. was unanimously chosen Chairman.

This meeting taking into consideration the critical situation of our country, assailed with implacable animosity by a vindictive and savage enemy, whom neither the laws of God nor the ordinances of man have been found to influence, and who has not only practised upon these United States every species of insult, fraud and violence, but committed unexampled acts of cruelty and murder upon our inoffensive and defenceless fellow citizens—

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting the choice of a Chief Magistrate of this state being intimately connected with the future happiness of the nation, we are convinced that he should be a man possessing a just regard for the honor, dignity and prosperity of his country, perfectly free from the influence of those perfidious and sacrilegious principles of Jacobinism which have already extinguished every republic on earth but our own—a man totally exempt from foreign influence, interests or connections, to whose integrity and patriotism the Federal government can look with implicit confidence for support in time of danger.

Resolved, That this meeting are of opinion that JAMES ROSS, Esq. of Pittsburg possesses in an eminent degree those qualifications and virtues that are indispensably requisite in the executive of a good government—that his conduct heretofore in the State Convention which adopted the Federal Constitution and in the Senate of the United States has been such as to merit our entire confidence and approbation. Therefore we are determined individually to use all honorable means in our power to promote the election of said James Ross to the office of Governor of this Commonwealth.

Resolved, that the following persons be a committee to exert themselves in their respective wards and furnish tickets for the election.

FOR SOUTHWARK.

TERMS
Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,
FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE
JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,
FROM THE COMMENCEMENT
Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,
INCLUDING
The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat tipe, in large octavo.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"Philadelphia, June 15, 1798.

"To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom, render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.

Frankford, July 13 eotf

The Swift-Sure,

A NEW LINE OF STAGES,

NOW RUNNING BETWEEN

PHILADELPHIA & NEW-YORK,

By the short and pleasant road of Bustleton, Newtown, Scotch Plains, Springfield and Newark.

THE excellence of this road, the populousness of the country through which it passes, with sundry other advantages, which render it so far preferable to the Old Road through Bristol, Brunswick, &c. long ago suggested the propriety of its becoming the Grand Thorough Fare from Philadelphia to New York. During the present year, a minute survey of it has been taken, and its superiority over the Old Road, both in winter and summer, has been clearly ascertained.—There are good bridges over all the other waters but the Delaware, and here the crossing is performed with great safety and in less than half the time required at the Trenton Ferry. The road is several miles shorter than the old road, but this is amongst the least of its advantages, because daily experience proves to us, that dispatch as well as comfort in travelling principally depend on the goodness of the road and the levelness of the country, and, in these respects, the New Road is, beyond all comparison, the best. It presents none of those rocky hills, which render the Old Road so fatiguing between the Delaware and Newark. The soil, too, for the greater part, is such as to produce but little mud in winter, and very little dust in summer, which circumstance, added to the beauty of the country, and a considerable proportion of shade, must always render travelling in the latter season peculiarly agreeable.

The Swift Sure starts from PHILADELPHIA, at 6 o'clock every morning (Sundays excepted) from the GREEN TREE, opposite the Lutheran Church, North Fourth street. It goes through Frankford to Bustleton, where it stops to Breakfast; from Bustletown it goes through Newtown to Penny-town to dinner; from Penny-town through Hopewell, Millstone, Bound-brook, Quibbletown and Plainfield to Scotch Plains to lodge. The next morning it stops at Springfield to breakfast, from whence it goes through Newark and arrives at New-York at noon.

From NEW-YORK it starts at 3 o'clock in the afternoon (from Paulus Hook) and arrives at Philadelphia the next evening. For seats at New-York, application may be made to Edward Bardin, Old Coffee house, to A. Mathieu, corner of Nassau and John streets, to B. Many, no. 48, Cortlandt, corner of Greenwich street, and to Michael Little, at his hotel, no. 42, Broad street.

Way passengers 6 Cents per Mile.

Each passenger is allowed to take on 14lbs. of baggage carriage free; but all other baggage, taken on by a passenger, will be charged at 4 cents per pound weight.

With respect to packages sent on without passengers, the proprietors presume they have adopted a regulation, which, though unknown to other lines of stages, they think must meet with general approbation. They pledge themselves to make good every package on the following conditions. The person who delivers the package at the office shall see it entered in the stage-book, for which entry he shall pay 6 cents; he will then state the value of the package, and pay (exclusive of the carriage) one per cent. on the value, as insurance, and for which he will receive a receipt. Thus, for instance, if he estimates his package at one dollar, he will pay one cent. and if at one hundred dollars, he will pay one dollar insurance, and in like proportion for packages of any other value.

Very few persons it is presumed, will dislike this regulation; it will however, be optionable with every one to avail himself of this security or not. But the proprietors think it right to state very explicitly, that they will be responsible for the safe delivery of no package, which is not regularly entered, and for which an insurance receipt cannot be produced.

In the distribution of the route, the greatest care has bren taken to fix on such places and taverns as always afford a good accommodation and entertainment for the passengers at the most reasonable rates. The stages are well equipped furnished with fleet and steady horses, and committed to the care of intelligent sober and obliging drivers. The proprietors themselves live at the different towns and villages where the stages will stop, so that the conduct of the persons they employ is continually an object of their attention.—They take care also to see that the passengers are well provided for and politely treated at the taverns, and that no sort of chicanery or insolence is practised upon them; in short, they have spared neither pains nor expence to render the SWIFT-SURE the very best line of stages in America.

The line has now run nearly a month, during which time a great number of gentlemen have gone through, both from Philadelphia and New-York. Every passenger has found the road to surpass very far all that has been said of its excellence; and the Proprietors of the Swift Sure are extremely happy to hear the behaviou, of their drivers, and the treatment at Taverns spoken of with the highest satisfaction.

AT a meeting of the visitors and governors of St. John's college in the State of Maryland, on the 13th day of July 1799,

Resolved, That on the first day of October next, this board will proceed to elect a Professor of English and Grammar, who shall receive, for his services, at the rate of £200 per annum, to be paid quarterly; and that public notice thereof be given, &c. &c,

Test, A. C. HANSON,

N B. The office aforesaid hath just become vacant, by the resignation of a gentleman, whose affairs require, the immediate undertaking of a voyage by sea.

It is the duty of the said Professor (to whom is allowed an assistant) to teach the English language grammatically, and to prepare students for a superior school, by teaching them the Latin grammar, the Vocabulary, and Cordery. Writing is to be taught to all his scholars at stated hours; and to those students who are not destined for the superior school, are to be taught, at the discretion of their parents, or guardians, Arithmetic, and other branches of science usually taught in English schools —A complete knowledge then of Latin, Arithmetic, &c. is considered indispensable in the professor; and it is expected, that candidates who are not known to the Board, will submit to an examination, as well as produce satisfactory testimonials of their good morals, and fair characters.

The Printers within the United States are requested to insert in their papers the foregoing resolution and remarks, and to repeat the publication, as often as convenience will admit, until the 20th day of September next.

WHEREAS,

AN attachment was lately issued out of the inferior court of common pleas of the county of Essex, in the state of New Jersey, directed to the sheriff of the said county, against the rights, credits, monies and effects, goods and chattles, lands and tenements of John Cleves Symmes at the suit of William Wells, in a plea of trespass on the case to his damage three thousand dollars;—

And whereas, the said sheriff did, at the term of June last past, return to the said court that he had attached the defendant by a certain bond given by Matthias Denman and Samuel Meeker to the said defendant, to the amount of near two thousand dollars, and also by sixty land warrants;—

Now therefore, unless the said John Cleves Symmes shall appear, give special bail, and receive a declaration at the suit of the plaintiff, judgment will be entered against him, and his property herein attached, will be sold agreeably to the statute in such case made and provided.
